

ANCHOR

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES & DIVERSITY

“Anchor are committed to providing a working environment in which employees are able to realise their full potential and to contribute to its business success irrespective of their gender, race, disability, sexual orientation, marital status, part-time status, age, religion or belief”.

Anchor Pipework Limited (Anchor) are committed to providing a working environment in which staff can realise their full potential and to contribute to its business success irrespective of their gender, race, disability, sexual orientation, marital status, part-time status, age, religion or belief. This is a key employment value to which all employees are expected to give their full support.

To achieve this goal, Anchor are committed to identifying and eliminating unlawful discriminatory practices, procedures and attitudes. Anchor expects staff to support this commitment and to assist in its realisation in all possible ways.

Specifically, Anchor ensures that no staff or candidate is subject to unlawful discrimination, either directly or indirectly, on the grounds of gender, race (including colour, nationality or ethnic origin), disability, sexual orientation, marital status, part-time status, age religion or belief. This commitment applies to all aspects of employment, including:

- Recruitment, including advertisements, job descriptions, interview and selection procedures
- Training
- Promotion and career development opportunities;
- Terms and conditions of employment, and access to employment related benefits and facilities
- Grievance handling and the application of disciplinary procedures; and
- Selection for redundancy.

Equal opportunities practice is developing constantly as social attitudes and legislation change. Anchor will keep this policy under review and will implement changes where these could improve equality of opportunity. This commitment applies to all Anchor's employment policies and procedures, not just those specifically connected with equal opportunities and diversity.

HARASSMENT

Harassment is physical, verbal or non-verbal behaviour that is unwanted and personally offensive to the recipient, and which causes the recipient to feel threatened, humiliated, intimidated, patronised, denigrated, bullied, distressed or harassed.

THE WAY IN WHICH COMPLAINTS OF UNLAWFUL DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT WILL BE HANDLED

Discrimination and harassment are often complex matters, and there is no single way of dealing with every suspected or alleged instance. In some cases, employees may be able to deal satisfactorily with an issue by raising it with their line manager.

If an employee wishes to make a formal complaint, he or she should use the Anchor's Grievance Procedure which is set out in AM(HB)003 Employee Handbook.

Anchor will treat seriously all allegations of unlawful discrimination or harassment.

IF AN EMPLOYEE IS ACCUSED OF UNLAWFUL DISCRIMINATION OR HARASSMENT

If an employee is accused of unlawful discrimination or harassment, Anchor will investigate the matter fully.

In the course of the investigation the employee will be given the opportunity to respond to the allegation and provide an explanation of his or her actions.

If Anchor concludes that no unlawful discrimination or harassment has occurred, this will be the end of the matter.

If Anchor concludes that the claim is false or malicious the complainant may be subject to disciplinary action.

If on the other hand Anchor concludes that the employee's actions amount to unlawful discrimination or harassment he or she may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including summary dismissal for gross misconduct.

MONITORING

Anchor will not tolerate unlawful discrimination or harassment of any kind in the working environment and will take positive action to prevent its occurrence.

Anchor will monitor its policies and will implement changes in order to improve them as social attitudes and legislation change. This commitment applies to all Anchor's employment policies and procedures, not just those specifically concerned with equal opportunities.
